

Constructing Word Pictures

Below are some simple sentences. Working in a small group of two or three, use markers and paper to create a simple word picture. Compare your key words and word pictures with others in the class. You have 5 minutes to prepare 4 different word picture graphics. After you're done. We'll share them over the air to each other and comment.

1. Motivated students learn more.
2. The three major learning domains include the cognitive, affective, and psychomotor.
3. Word pictures assist instructors to organize presentations, reduce verbiage, and cue students.
4. Interaction in distance learning takes place between the instructor and student; among students; and between student and media.

